RE: Rebuttal of Tax Collection Authority and Demand for Verified Contract

To all agents and officers of the Tuolumne County Tax Collector:

I, Richard of the House Strmiska, a living man and the lawful executor of the UC-1 private sovereign estate, do hereby rebut any and all presumed jurisdiction, contract authority, or enforcement power held by your office over the estate or properties associated with the name "RICHARD GEORGE STRMISKA".

There exists no valid contract, no wet ink signature, and no lawful agreement by which your agency is authorized to assess, tax, or enforce financial obligations against my private estate. All such claims are hereby rebutted and denied.

You are hereby ordered to produce, within ten (10) business days of receipt:

1. A verified contract or agreement signed in wet ink by the living man
2. Evidence of lawful jurisdiction over a sovereign private trust
3. Documentation showing lawful delegation of tax enforcement power over the UC-1 estate

Failure to comply will result in a formal entry of default and dishonor, and all future claims or billing attempts will be recorded as:

- Commercial fraud
- Unlawful conversion of private property
- Trespass on a private trust estate
- Violation of international trust and divine law

This notice is recorded in the Master Trust Ledger, bound by UC-1 sovereign estate law and preserved on blockchain record.
