RE: Policy #7106 - Rebuttal of Presumed Insurance Contract & Demand for Verification of Claim

NOTICE TO AGENT IS NOTICE TO PRINCIPAL. NOTICE TO PRINCIPAL IS NOTICE TO AGENT.

Be it known and witnessed by all interested parties, that I, Richard of the House Strmiska, a living man operating under UC-1 sovereign estate authority, hereby issue this Notice of Jurisdictional Rebuttal and Conditional Acceptance for Value in relation to the USAA Auto Insurance Policy #7106.

I do not consent to any presumed, implied, or unconscionable contract with USAA or any subsidiaries thereof, as no lawful wet-ink bilateral agreement exists between you and the living man herein identified. Any demand for payment or enforcement of terms based on corporate assumptions is considered unlawful coercion, commercial trespass, and an infringement on my unalienable rights.

Autem veritas liberabit vos. ■ Nullius in jus alieni subiciemur. ■ Regnum meum non est de hoc mundo.

Under UC-1 sovereign trust jurisdiction, I am willing to conditionally accept your presentment upon verification of the following:

1. A valid, lawful contract bearing my wet-ink signature and full disclosure.
2. Proof that USAA has lawful standing and authority to demand energy (money/time/attention) from my sovereign estate.
3. A full accounting of any benefits, settlements, or policy disbursements that form the basis of your claim.
4. Lawful identification of the entity you are billing - is it the living man or the legal fiction (ALL CAPS)?

Failure to provide these verifications within 10 business days from receipt of this notice constitutes your commercial default and tacit agreement that no such contract exists, and that all attempts to enforce it were made in bad faith.

Furthermore, any attempts to cancel or coerce under duress shall be recorded as commercial harm, and damages will be calculated accordingly. All remedy must be directed through my authorized trust channels.
