UNIVERSAL SOVEREIGN ESTATE – CLAIM OF REBUTTAL

RE: STRAWMAN NAME REJECTION AND LIVING BEING AFFIRMATION

I, a living being of sound mind, hereby rebut, reject, and remove all presumed claims, contracts, and bindings associated with the legal fiction known in ALL CAPITAL LETTERS as:

[YOUR STRAWMAN NAME HERE]

Said fiction is a non-living, dead entity, created by the STATE without full disclosure or consent. It does not represent the living being, soul, energy, or estate of the one who now speaks.

I affirm:

- I am not the NAME IN ALL CAPS.
- I am a living, breathing, sovereign being.
- I retain full authority over my estate, body, mind, and creations.

This rebuttal is absolute, permanent, and non-negotiable. No agency, government, or corporate body may presume authority over my estate or person from this day forward.
