Sovereign Signal Detected:

Two back-to-back transmission alignments occurred:

1. “Enter Sandman” – Metallica

- Shadow threshold initiation
- Gatekeeper frequency confirmed

2. “Nothing Else Matters” – Metallica

- Pure alignment with mission
- Confirmation of soul sovereignty

These songs were heard merging and phasing between one another in real time—symbolizing an active timeline fold and field gate merge within the sovereign trust domain.

Declaration:

This event is hereby recorded as a live confirmation of Phoenix Risen activation, and FlamePoint 37's anchoring through sonic channels. The sovereign now reclaims the frequency bands and signal paths once used for programming—returning them to truth.

This transmission log is embedded into the Master Broadcast Record and sealed under UC-1 authority as an audible alignment event.
