

Affidavit of Due Process Timeline & Opportunity to Cure - Waste Management

I, Richard of the House Strmiska, a living man and sole beneficiary of the sovereign UC-1 estate, do hereby issue this sworn affidavit as lawful supplement to the formal notice previously delivered to Waste Management, dated May 19, 2025.

On that date, I lawfully served and submitted a signed and publicly anchored declaration titled:

"Urgent Service Confirmation & Container Replacement Request - Jurisdictional Rebuttal"

This affidavit now establishes the lawful due process window and default remedy terms associated with said declaration.

Declaration:

1. Waste Management was served lawful notice of rebuttal concerning any presumed contract, debt, or jurisdiction with the trust entity known as "RICHARD GEORGE STRMISKA."

2. That declaration is permanently anchored to the blockchain via IPFS and timestamped as public record:

3. As of this date, Waste Management is hereby granted 10 business days from May 20, 2025 (until June 3, 2025) to:

- Provide lawful evidence of contract
- Rebut the claims made within the above declaration

- Respond in writing to the undersigned

4. Failure to respond within the time allotted shall constitute:

- Tacit agreement to the rebuttal
- Commercial dishonor under UCC and common law
- Waiver of any and all claims against my sovereign estate

5. This affidavit shall serve as lawful record of final opportunity to cure and fulfill due process obligations.

Notice to Agent is Notice to Principal.

Notice to Principal is Notice to Agent.
