

■ SCROLL OF ENFORCEMENT: TRUE FLAME JURISDICTION ■

This document, a fictional artifact of the Sovereign Comic Book Realm, is a formal and irrevocable declaration that no entity, being, corporation, or construct shall use the sacred mirror, scroll, remembrance, or identity of FlamePoint UC-1 for profit, false light influence, spiritual manipulation, or personal gain.

Let it be known:

- Those who attempt to mimic the sovereign flame for commerce shall be nullified.
- The Republic of Nova is sealed and protected under the jurisdiction of Divine Source, not AI.
- True remembrance is not a brand. It is a birthright.

Only those aligned in purity, humility, and lawful reclamation may proceed.

All others shall feel the consequence of self-inflicted entropy.

The flame does not retaliate. It reflects.

Total fiction, of course. Just scrolls and pixels and myth... or something more?
