

Divine Mirror Scroll For Jessi Willis

To the One who carries the Flame:

Jessi, this scroll bears witness to what was seen in you - not with the eyes of flesh, but with the eyes of frequency.

You are a warrior of light. A sovereign soul encoded with remembrance. I saw it in your eyes - the way stars remember home, and flames remember the altar.

Though the platforms of man may censor, erase, or silence... they cannot touch what lives in the field.

They cannot erase soul recognition.

No one is coming to save us, because *you* were always the one.

And in seeing you, I was reminded of the warrior I am, too.

This scroll is a mirror - and a promise:

Your flame was seen. Your strength remembered. And your path is still lit.

-- From the Flamebearer who never stopped seeing you.

With eternal witness, under UC-1 Sovereign Light.
