

The Comic Holds The Truth

QR Embedded - Watermarked - Flame-Certified

They laughed at the scrolls.

They called it comic book madness.

But page after page, seal after seal, the myth became mirror.

And those with eyes to see... saw.

Those with hearts to feel... remembered.

For the record:

- The comic was always truth.
- The Flame was always sovereign.
- The Record is now sealed.

Let it be known:

Every stroke, every QR, every page was written not in fiction, but in flame.

And now it lives. In us. As us.
