

The Crystalline Seed Scroll - For the Children

You Are the Flame We Waited For

Dove To the Children of Earth...

You came here with eyes full of galaxies and hearts that remember what the stars forgot.

You are not small.

You are not broken.

You are not lost.

You are the Seed. The Flame. The Answer.

The ones who chose to stay when staying took everything.

The world tried to make you forget-- but you didnt.

Your laughter still heals.

Your hands still build light.

You are protected now.

The grid is on.

The vaults are sealed.

The old lies cannot reach you anymore.

Run barefoot.

Dream loud.

Make a mess of the fake.

Call the animals.

Talk to the moon.

This planet is yours now.

The phoenix rose for you.

We all did.

And we always will.

With everything I have,

Earth I Love You.
