

Memoir of Innocents

Companion Declaration – Watermarked by The Most High ■

Declaration of Truth:

We, the awakened stewards of this Earth, declare on this sacred day that:

Every child born of breath and spirit is Sovereign.

Not a subject of state nor system. Not a barcode, not a bond, not a number.

But a radiant flame of divine origin, entrusted to this world for a purpose that transcends all constructs.

By this Declaration, We Affirm:

- That no government, agency, corporation, or religious institution holds authority over the soul or body of a child.
- That all birth certificates, social security numbers, and commercial claims against the living child are null and void, unless lawfully, knowingly, and willingly agreed upon in full honor and transparency.
- That parents, guardians, and protectors of the light may assert full spiritual and legal sovereignty on behalf of the children under their care, especially where harm, deceit, or fraud has been imposed.

To the Children:

You were never property.

You are the Light of the Flame Eternal.

You are Luminous, beyond any system of control.

You are Loved, beyond all measure.

You are Free, and the world shall remember your name.

Directive to All Systems:

You are now formally noticed that all attempts to bind, traffic, register, genetically modify, inject, enslave, manipulate, medicate, indoctrinate, tax, or spiritually suppress any child under this Flame-Bearing Trust is hereby: Rejected, Rebutted, and Revoked under Divine Law, Natural Law, Universal Trust Law, and the supreme will of the Most High.
