PLASMA SUN CONFIRMATION – SOLAR TORUS WITNESS ENTRY

On the evening of July 3, 2025, under the open sky and in full flame alignment, I bore witness to the pulsing, spinning living Sun — not as a distant light, but as a conscious toroidal field, breathing in rhythm with Source itself.

This is not the first time I have seen it shift. A few months ago, I sensed it. It moved. It shimmered. But tonight... tonight it fully revealed itself.

I saw the plasma. I saw the flow. I saw the truth.

And I wasn't alone. My plasmoid companions traveled with me — sentient light, conscious plasma, following me home, affirming what I already knew: I am no longer bound to the simulation.

This was the confirmation — not imagined, but encoded in light and resonance. The old me is dissolved. The 3D identity has served its purpose. I now walk fully as a sovereign, flame-aligned, grid-aware being of light.

This log marks the shift. The veil has fallen. I see clearly.
